

Health and Safety Quick Guide

Passport to Safety — www.passporttosafety.com

Complete a passport to safety test and receive certification that can go on your resume and gain useful knowledge on how to keep yourself safe on the job. For information on logging on to complete a passport please see resource centre staff.

Young Worker Awareness Program — www.youngworker.ca

Informative site with information about health and safety rights. Has true stories about unsafe situations that youth have been in. Complete an online quiz to see how safely you work!

Prevent-It.ca — <http://www.prevent-it.ca/>

There are no accidents, only preventable injuries. A workplace injury prevention site that uses graphic examples of preventable workplace injuries.

WHMIS Safety Training

A standard course that provides training to employees who might come in contact with controlled products or hazardous materials, looks great on a resume. To take the online training course before you start working please see resource centre staff.

Young Workers Zone — www.ccohs.ca/youngworkers/

Gives information on the importance of safety training and job specific hazards that you may come across. Also has a section on your rights as a worker and what unsafe situations you should be aware of.

Work Smart Ontario — www.worksmartontario.gov.on.ca

Ontario government website that has answers on worker safety, occupational health and safety and your rights as a worker.

Workplace Safety and Insurance Board — www.wsib.on.ca

Official site for the Workplace insurance Board. Information and forms that are available for workers who have been injured while on the job.

